

---

Mrs. Nuthak's News

Reading: This week's story is, "Author: A True Story". It is a biography, written and illustrated by Helen Lester. The comprehension skill for the week involves author's purpose. Authors write to entertain, to inform, or to persuade. Vocab.

,words include: talented, single, proper, excitement, acceptance, useful, illustrated, publisher, and autographing.

Language: Students will learn how to combine sentences by either joining two nouns in the subject or two nouns in the predicate.

Spelling: Words with wr, kn, and gn.

List: wrap, knit, gnat,

.wrists, knots, wrote, knight, sign, knock, wreck, know, wring, gnaws, write, wrong, throw, spray, scratch, wristwatch, and knapsack.

Math: We will continue with Multiplication, emphasizing arrays. Please have your child practice their multiplication facts at home. We will also work on elapsed time.

Volume #13

Nov. 16, 2009

---

Special points of interest:

Nov. 9th-23rd: Paws to Paws Drive. Thank you to those of you that have sent in items.

Nov. 20th: Shelbyville Holiday Parade.

Nov. 16th: Soil and Water Conservation activities in classroom.

Nov. 20th: Mid-term grades come home.

BASIC INFORMATION:

Please remember to sign your child's Assignment Book and Behavior/Homework sheet every evening. Also, watch for many Parent Involvement Activities throughout the school year.

Please check to see if your child has enough school supplies.

Phone Information:

Loper-398-9725

My Extension: 5524

*Homework is posted on eBoard on the Loper website.

---